Cyber insurance from The Hanover

Big business hacks make headlines. But for individuals, cyber threats are more prevalent than ever, especially as more and more time is spent at home and online. The Hanover's cyber coverage offers peace of mind with protection for your cell phones, computers, tablets and other smart devices. This coverage includes protection against:

Cyber extortion

Coverage provides expert guidance on responding to ransom threats involving compromised devices, systems or data.

Cyberattacks

Includes costs for restoring systems and recovering data on computers and connected devices.

Cyberbullying

Includes costs related to incidents involving a minor on your policy, such as up to 90 days of tutoring, school transfer fees (excluding tuition), cybersecurity consulting, and legal fees to remove harmful content.

Data breach

Includes IT and legal reviews, notification of affected individuals, and support like credit monitoring and identity restoration.

Online fraud

Coverage applies to events that cause direct financial loss, such as identity theft, phishing, forgery and unauthorized card use.

The Hanover's cyber protection comes with:

- Coverage options up to $100,000 (with a 50% sub-limit for cyberbullying coverage)
- Credit monitoring in the event of a claim

Please note: Cyber coverage has a separate $500 deductible, which is applied specifically to cyber-related claims and differs from the standard policy deductible.
