

Personal Lines

It's what's inside that matters

As a condo owner, you don't have some of the traditional risks associated with owning a house. But you still have your belongings—and your lifestyle—to protect. Having neighbors and tenants around you can increase the chances of a loss out of your control.

Hanover Prestige Condo offers coverage for possessions and liability, for condo and co-op owners, with coverage limits starting at $250K. It's versatile, valuable "walls-in" protection for the place you call home.

- Truly valuable coverage: Protect items like electronics, furniture, clothes and collectibles against damage and theft. $10K in coverage with no per item limit. Plus for priceless valuables, such as fine art and jewelry, you can add optional coverage up to $100K.
- Walls-in coverage: Hanover Prestige Condo stands apart with flexible coverage options, allowing you to have one combined limit for your living space and your personal possessions.
- Rest assured: If an incident leaves your condo uninhabitable, and you are forced to temporarily relocate, loss of use provides coverage for out-of-pocket living expenses while you await repairs.
- Don't risk it all: Our liability coverage protects you against legal damages or major medical bills that arise from a major accident.
- Watching out for water: More neighbors means an increased chance of water damage. Hanover Prestige Condo offers water backup coverage, starting at $25K, up to $100K.
- Staying safe after a loss: Our loss mitigation expense coverage provides up to $2,500 for the installation of safety devices such as burglar alarms, or temperature or water sensors, after a covered loss payment of $10K or more.
